president. It has been the custom for years for the railways of the country to place at the disposal of the chief magistrate all the facilities in their possession There is not a manager of a "jerkwater" railroad in the United States who would not jump at the chance to place his entire roadbed and equipment at the disposaof the president. Whenever the occupant of the White House has announced a desire to travel the finest private cars have been offered for his accommodation and in many instances "pilot trains" have preceded the presidential party to secure the itmost safety.

But year af r year the feeling has been growing that the president should not be under obligations to the railroads or the owners of private cars, and only recently Mr. Roosevelt announced that he would accept no more favors from transportation companies. When he takes a trip by water he has at his disposal always a small naval vessel, gunboat or dispatch boat, but even on board a vessel flying the presidential flag he pays his "mess bill" for the reason that there is no fund out of which his table can be supplied, whether on sea or ashore. The demand from the country at large for a chance to see the Chief Magistrate in propria persona grows each year. It is necessary for him to travel many thousands of miles to comply with this demand and he cannot travel alone. His entourage consists of anywhere from ten to thirty persons and the expense of transporting such party would prove a serious tax upon the presidential income-in fact it would take at least half of his salary. When these facts were impressed upon the members of the house there was a prompt effort made to incorporate an item in the sundry civil appropriation bill which authorized the use of $25,000 to pay the president's traveling making an appropriation of a like amount for this purpose, and on Wednesday the bill was passed after forty minutes debate un

WASHINGTON, June 24.-Senator Hale, who, in the absence of Senator Allison is cellent bond, attached his signature and acting as chairman of the senate committhus approved it in accordance with tele- tee on appropriations, expresses confidence graphic instructions from the state supreme | in the final adjournment of congress before court. Clark of the Court Kelley then was the close of the present week. His proaroused and after filing be bond and gram will be to urge the consideration of making it a part of the court records, a appropriation bills and conference reports to the exclusion of practically all other The bond is signed by twenty-nine of the matters, and with the supply bills finally most prominent and substantial citizens of passed, there is no measure, unless it be Sioux Falls Many others offered to sign the railroad rate bill, that can hold congress it and several times the number who at- together. The Maine senator is of the opinion that the work can all be concluded

The only two appropriation bills which have not passed the senate are the general deficiency bill and the omnibus public The hour was so late when a copy of the building bill, but the sundry civil, the naval bond was filed with Sheriff Phillips that and the agricultural bills are still in conany intention there might have been of ference. Of these none is expected to require much time except the agricultural was ahandoned. It has been cloudy and bill, to which is attached the meat inraining throughout today and it was spection provision, and it is generally con ceded that in case of necessity that mea. sure could be disposed of in short order as it has already been sufficiently discussed to satisfy most senators. It is not anticipated that the deficiency bill will arouse debate, but there will be a general scramthe son of the couple, yet are keeping Mrs. ble to secure recognition on the building Kaufmann company at the jail, both being bill. For this reason it will be held in reserve until the last minute.

There will also be further discussion of the resolution calling on the attorney general for a statement of suits under the antitrust laws, and Benator LaFollette has given sotice of his intention to prosecute his effort to secure the adoption of his more than were introduced during the en- there for a short time longer as a pre- resolution providing for the withdrawal of coal and oil lands from entry. Night sessions are probable towards the last of the week Every effort is to be made to finish the business of the session in the house of representatives this week. Contrary to the sual practice, the adjournment resolution is not to be introduced until the legislative business is in such shape that it cannot be blocked by the single-handed opposition of any member of either body, and particularly the senate. Last of Appropriations.

The last of the appropriation bills, the general deficiency, will be reported to the house today and passed. This bill carries consumptive and can live only a short this amount will be increased very largely, as it is planned to add to it in conference a certain percentage of the appropriations cussion to a few hours. MINERS HAVE NARROW ESCAPE Magazine Explodes, but Fuse to Dyusmite at Cabin Door Pails to Hurn.

ST. PAUL Minn., June 24 -- A Ploneer Press special from Helena, Mont., says: Thirty or forty men had a miraculous escape from being blown to atoms last night when the powder house at Harris' lime quarry, ten miles from here, was exploded by some unidentified person. The men were asleep in a brick house near there and logs from the powder house were blown over the brick house. Against the door of the brick house was found a sack containing thirty-five sticks of dynamite, to which a fuse had been attached This is said to be the second mysterious explosion at the quarry within the last few weeks.
